

Foster City Campus

The End is Near

1 Peter 4:7 - 11

April 23, 2017 || Mark Mitchell

1. When you hear those seven words, “The end of all things is near,” what is your reaction?
2. What did Peter mean by this statement? What are some of the events associated with the end of all things?
3. What are some things that have helped you be alert and sober minded for prayer?
4. Can you think of an example where “love covered a multitude of sins”?
5. When have you been ministered to by someone else’s hospitality? Why is this hard for us to practice? What does this look like for you?
6. Do you see yourself with serving gifts or speaking gifts? If you do not know your spiritual gifts, how can you begin to discover them?
7. Why do you think Peter ended with a doxology?

North Campus Sermon Questions

The End is Near

1 Peter 4:7 - 11

April 23, 2017 || Dan Reid

1. When you hear those seven words, “The End of All Things is Near”, what is your reaction?
2. If things will likely getting harder as the end of all things draws near, why do you think Peter puts such an emphasis on the priority of Christian Community?
3. What are some things that have helped you be alert and sober minded for prayer?
4. What are some strategies that help you when you feel “stretched to the limit” to love others?
5. Can you think of an example in your life where “love covered a multitude of sins”?
6. When have you been ministered to by someone else’s hospitality? How might you grow in the area of loving through hospitality?
7. Do you see yourself with serving or speaking gifts? If you do not know your gifts, how might you discover and begin to use your gifts more in the body of Christ?
8. Why do you think Peter ended with a doxology?

South Campus Sermon Questions

The End is Near

1 Peter 4:7 - 11

April 23, 2017 || Sandy Hughes

1. What does Peter mean by, “The end of all things is near” (v.7)?
2. Because the end is near, what four actions does Peter exhort the church to do? What is your initial reaction to these four actions?
3. What does it mean to pray alert and with "a sober mind" (v.7)? Can you describe prayer that is not alert and not with a sober mind?
4. How does love cover a multitude of sins (v.8)?
5. How have you lived in the tension of “covering” the sin of another while not ignoring their sin?
6. Describe a time in which you experienced unforgettable hospitality. How did that experience shape your view of hospitality?
7. In what ways have you used your gifts in the church? In what ways have you struggled to understand or live out your gifting?
8. What is the aim of all gifting (v.11)?