

Foster City Campus – February 25, 2018

From Expectation to Invitation (Note: Because we had a guest speaker at Foster City on February 25, the sermon based questions below are based on our Sunday South Campus Message by Kathy Berggren)

Kathy Berggren - Matthew 11: 20-29

1. With what tone have you read Matthew 11:20-24 in the past? Why do you think that is?
2. Discuss the following definition of "Woe to you": "not a grim call for vengeance, but an expression of regret- it combines warning and compassion.
3. What had Jesus done in these cities? Why is He "warning them with compassion" & compare them to these wicked towns?"
4. How would you define "indifference?" What can make it so subtle and harmful to us and our relationship with God?
5. Are you aware of what actions/inactions can cultivate indifference in your life? Why are we indifferent? What can you do to change that?
6. Are you surprised that Jesus continues to invite people who haven't given Him the time of day? What does this tell you about Him?
7. What is a yoke? What are you yoked to other than Jesus? How is He calling to respond to His invitation to come to Him and find real rest for you soul?

South Campus – February 25, 2018

Kathy Berggren - South Campus
"From Expectation to Invitation"

1. With what tone have you read Matthew 11:20-24 in the past? Why do you think that is?
2. Discuss the following definition of "Woe to you": "not a grim call for vengeance, but an expression of regret- it combines warning and compassion.
3. What had Jesus done in these cities? Why is He "warning them with compassion" & compare them to these wicked towns?"
4. How would you define "indifference?" What can make it so subtle and harmful to us and our relationship with God?
5. Are you aware of what actions/inactions can cultivate indifference in your life? Why are we indifferent? What can you do to change that?
6. Are you surprised that Jesus continues to invite people who haven't given Him the time of day? What does this tell you about Him?
7. What is a yoke? What are you yoked to other than Jesus? How is He calling to respond to His invitation to come to Him and find real rest for you soul?